

MAIN TITLE

Produced by Ford Motion Picture Laboratories

Released through GOLDWYN

Copyrighted 1920 by Ford Motor Company

OCT 12 1920

SUB TITLES

1. A brand has suddenly been placed upon the thousands of millions of sharks to supply the world with their share of food and raiment. Sharking station at Sanibal Island, Fla.
2. His play and feeding "ground" covers four-fifths of the earth's surface. At this point the waters are infested by millions of these sea creatures.
3. Nets 15 feet wide and 1000 yards long are anchored along the coast.
4. As each one of these wild mavericks is destroyed, the supply of edible fish is increased by the millions.
5. A hammerhead.
6. Representing enough soup to supply a hotel.
7. The Whip Ray with its whip-like tail and stingers can inflict a poisonous and painful wound.
8. Now come to make the life of man upon dry land easier, safer and altogether more enjoyable.
9. From the livers and heads a great quantity of oil is derived. Cubans are marvelously skillful in wielding a knife.
10. One may compare the shark meat with halibut, haddock, cod and salmon -- only that it is superior in tenderness and flavor.
11. Fleshing the hides.
12. He possesses a hide which no standard of leather toughness has yet been found to equal, hence the reason for this great industry.
13. From the fins a nutritious jelly is made, which the Chinese love so much.
14. The hides are now ready for their trip into the mysteries of tanning.
15. By a process founded by Dr. Alfred Ehrenreich, the shark hide is rendered most pliable. Removing flesh and splitting hides to proper thickness.
16. Liming, tanning and drying skins.
17. Shaving off rough surface and stretching.
18. Grading, softening and staking, which further stretches the hides.
19. Coloring, glazing and finishing leather.
20. Oh, Mr. Shark, it rests with you to hasten the day when the cost of shoes, pocket books, traveling bags, etc., will be within the reach of us ordinary mortals.

(The End)

This document is from the Library of Congress
“Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection,
1912-1977”

Collections Summary:

The Motion Picture Copyright Descriptions Collection, Class L and Class M, consists of forms, abstracts, plot summaries, dialogue and continuity scripts, press kits, publicity and other material, submitted for the purpose of enabling descriptive cataloging for motion picture photoplays registered with the United States Copyright Office under Class L and Class M from 1912-1977.

Class L Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi020004>

Class M Finding Aid:

<https://hdl.loc.gov/loc.mbrsmi/eadmbrsmi.mi021002>

National Audio-Visual Conservation Center
The Library of Congress